

Sharon Felker Entertains College Set

Miss Sharon Felker, student at El Camino College, entertained a number of college students for the holidays with a festive New Year's party at the home of her mother, Mrs. Laura Felker, 1010 Beech Ave.

The spacious rumpus room was regally decorated with serpentine and balloons. A huge punch bowl centered a decorated table from which refreshments were served. The evening was spent dancing.

Enjoying Sharon's party were Sandra Haydel, Dale Daig, Carol Acley, John Walsh, Barbara Kerovian, Keith Monroe and Jim Bearden, all of El Camino College; Chuck Hayden and Bob Griley, Loyola; Julie Rhones UC Santa Barbara; Dick Nokes, Long Beach State; Curt Higgins, from UC; Mary Schott and Loretta Vonderhake, Mount St. Mary's; Harold Bodgwell, Fullerton; Sherry Sidebotham, Inglewood High; and Kenny Daig, Mira Costa.

Mrs. Dyer Honors Mother With Lovely Holiday Tea

A beautiful holiday tea was given by Mrs. Louis Dyer at her home, 2838 Onrado, Thursday afternoon.

Sisterhood to Plan Future

Board members of Temple Menorah Sisterhood will attend their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Marie Bennett Thursday evening, Jan. 6. Plans will be made for future Sisterhood activities, with particular emphasis to be placed on religious school policy.

Members who attended the recent National Federation of Temple Sisterhood's Institute in Long Beach will lead a discussion of ideas presented there during that meeting.

Persons interested in Sisterhood activities are asked to contact Mrs. Sam Katz.

Crooker Family In Party Whirl

Mr. and Mrs. William Crooker and daughters, Patricia and Beverly, 809 Cranbrook Ave., have been in a whirl of activities during the holiday season. They attended an open house Dec. 19 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fran Hardey, in Altadena. On Dec. 19 they were among the guests at a party given by Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Norman, 1109 Cranbrook. Other local guests were Mr. and Mrs. Phil Patten and Mr. and Mrs. Neil Neilson. Christmas Eve, the Crookers held open house for 38 couples which included neighbors and friends and on Christmas Day they were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Davenport in Westchester.

Sunday, the day after Christmas, a family dinner was held at the Crooker home. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jess F. Dixon and Clyde, Kent and Grant.

day afternoon complimenting her mother, Mrs. K. W. Lloyd of Santa Barbara, who spent the holidays here. Mrs. Lloyd is a head resident in the girls dormitory at the University of California, Santa Barbara College.

A holiday motif was used extensively in decorating. The table was lovely in silver and red. A silver urn and silver lazy susan were flanked with tall red candles in silver holders.

Those bidden to meet the honoree were Misses W. C. Boswell, C. Cribbs, Paul Harestad, William Crooker, R. Norman, Phil Patton, Ray Ottosen, George Harley, H. Burrows, Edward Canfield, Kenneth Perkin, W. W. Jackson, Ralph King, William McDade, Robert Hangenbaugh, and Jack Klingberg.

Others have for the party were Mr. Dyer's mother and sister, Mrs. W. Solis and Mrs. Lydia Aguirre of Monterey Park. Assisting in dispensing hospitality was Deldre Dyer, young daughter of the hostess.

HEAR MESSIAH

Members of the First Christian Church choir entertained their families Sunday afternoon at the church. The group had the privilege of hearing a tape recording of "The Messiah," which was presented by the choir in December. After the program, refreshments were served.

CHILDREN LEARN WHAT THEY LIVE
If a child lives with criticism, he learns to condemn...
If a child lives with hostility, he learns to fight...
If a child lives with fear, he learns to be apprehensive...
If a child lives with pity, he learns to feel sorry for himself...

When a child lives with ridicule, he learns to be shy...
If a child lives with jealousy, he learns to be envious...
If a child lives with shame, he learns to feel guilty...
If a child lives with encouragement, he learns to be confident...
If a child lives with tolerance, he learns how to be patient...
If a child lives with praise, he learns to be appreciative...
If a child lives with acceptance, he learns to love...
If a child lives with approval, he learns to like himself...
If a child lives with recognition, he learns it is good to have a goal...
If a child lives with fairness, he learns what justice is...
If a child lives with honesty, he learns what truth is...
If a child lives with security, he learns to have faith in himself and those about him...
If a child lives with friendliness, he learns the world is a nice place in which to live.

WITH WHAT IS YOUR CHILD LIVING?

Class for Mothers-To-Be

A class in "Exercises for Pregnancy and Preparation for Childbirth" will be given by the Torrance YWCA beginning the week of Jan. 12, featuring posture, relaxation, training for labor and delivery, and post-partum exercises for muscle restoration. The group will meet eight times for 1 1/2 hours at each class. The twelfth week of pregnancy should be completed and the doctor's written permission obtained before registering for this course. Those who are interested are asked to call the Torrance YWCA to reserve a place in the class and to obtain further information. The exact time and date of the class will be determined by those registering for the course.
